France. It's time to go!

Whether you want to explore historic sites, sip some of the world's best wines, or take a leisurely stroll along the Mediterranean, an American Airlines Vacations<sup>SM</sup> tour that includes the ABC's of France — the regions of Alsace, Burgundy, and Champagne-Ardenne — and Cannes is a wonderful way to sample some of the best scenery, art, and culinary delights the world has to offer.

Located in the northeast corner of France, Alsace is made up of historic sites dating back to the days of the Roman Empire, world-class museums, and some of the most beautiful villages in France. Burgundy, home of legendary wines, offers breathtaking views of lush vineyards. Explore wine cellars and sample the regional cuisine, which includes some of France's most renowned dishes.

A trip through Champagne-Ardenne, land of the famous bubbly, delights with man-made and natural wonders, from majestic forests to glorious stained glass-filled cathedrals.

You can learn more about the ABC regions at www.ABCofFrance.com.

Best known as the home of the Cannes Film Festival, Cannes' casinos, nightclubs, and marinas brimming with yachts are just part of the excitement of this Riviera City. Additionally, Cannes' seaside setting is ideal for strolling along the Mediterranean or sampling the best of French cuisine at an outdoor café.
