Travel Discount Program In Alsace, Burgundy And Champagne-Ardenne Offers Great Savings This Fall And Through 2003

Press Release: EuroQuest, LLC

September 26, 2002

NEW YORK, NY -- With the ABC of France Privilege Card, a special cardholder discount program created by the Regional Boards of Tourism of Alsace, Burgundy and Champagne-Ardenne, American travelers to these regions are now able to discover the best of France while enjoying discounts up to 50% at more than 100 prestigious venues and tourist attractions, including chateaux, monuments and museums, golf courses, legendary wine cellars, celebrated Michelin starred restaurants, canal and hot-air balloon excursions. The ABC of France Privilege Card program will run exclusively in North America until December 31, 2003.

Great Savings

The ABC of France Privilege Card is the first discount program of this magnitude and quality launched by any region of France on the North American market, to stimulate increased travel to the ABC of France, and to respond to price-conscious visitors. For an initial expense of only $6, two visitors traveling together to any of the regions of Alsace, Burgundy and Champagne-Ardenne will be able to save hundreds of dollars.

Exceptional Fall Travel Packages to the ABC of France

Select tour operators invite independent travelers to experience the best of the French art de vivre and discover the history, heritage, gastronomy and legendary wines of the ABC of France with fall packages for all tastes and budgets, and the ABC of France Privilege Card.
