Launching the new fall/winter 2002-2003 collections in ready-to and designer fashions, accessories, jewelry, and home decor, al permeated by the nomadic spirit and our perpetual quest for ne horizons, 60 haute couture masterpieces and designers' creatio interacting with artworks take over the 5th floor of Printemps d through October 12, celebrating the timeless symbols of the nor way of life, and those of today's travelers, influenced by the sar and codes.

Visitors can comprehend the close links between today's fashion nomads, Gypsies who have circled the globe for centuries and Mongolians from the outer steppes, who still fascinate and inspi designers.

Curated by fashion historian Catherine Ormen, and designed by Gardere, "Citoyens Bohemes" is an invitation to travel and drea through cultures and traditions, in a world of movements, imag scents, and music.

Emmanuelle O'Sullivan Jewelry Exhibit

The journey starts at the Mongolian yurt, symbol of the nomadi where Emmanuelle O'Sullivan's unique jewelry pieces, fashioner antique Himalayan elements, evoke "the lights of Heaven on the monasteries of the Forbidden Valley" in Ladakh. Dedicated to al Himalayan people, this exhibit will travel throughout France and United States, culminating in an auction whose proceeds will be Tibetan refugee community of Dharamsala, India.

An Exceptional Display of Haute Couture and Designer Masterpi

Further along the journey, silhouettes dressed in stunning creat

framed against the landscapes from the eastern steppes. Christ by John Galliano, Chanel, Lanvin, Maurizio Galante and Chloé are of the couturiers whose masterpieces inspired by the nomadic spirit are on display. Five creations from Christian Lacroix's first collection (1988) transcend the festive spirit of the Gypsies of the Camargue in France. Fashion designers including some of the most cutting-edge creators are well represented by Issey Miyake, Isabelle Marant, Bergere, Dries Van Noten, Christine Birkle for Hut Up, Spijkers, Bossa, Darja Richter, Xuly Bet and Vava Dudu.

Artists Celebrate the Nomadic Spirit

Dancers, painters, sculptors, musicians, photographers and film makers have contributed their works, adding another dimension to the nomadic spirit. Seven fragrances were especially designed for this exhibition. On Friday until October 12, at 6:00 p.m., the store windows come alive with nomadic characters.

Printemps is open Monday to Saturday from 9:35 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. until 10:00 p.m. on Thursday, and is located at 64, boulevard Haussmann, 75009 Paris. Tel: 01-42-82-50-00.
